RIGHTS OF USE

The PBioC logo may be used by all lecturers and module supervisors as part of their work for the programme. External persons, institutions or companies may use the logo only after consultation with and written consent from the programme coordination. Students are allowed to use the logo for their work (e.g. thesis, protocol or presentation).

PROTECTIVE SPACE FOR THE LOGO

The PBioC logo must always be surrounded by a protective space in which nothing else printed appears. This protective space corresponds to at least one fourth of the total height of the word/figurative mark.
